

← Back to Newsroom \(/newsroom\)

Gangstas Making Astronomical Community Changes Inc.

Local Businessman Yeshaya Wasserman Boosts Community Anti-Violence Project

Thursday, August 20, 2015 12:25 AM

Yeshaya Wasserman donates equipment and financial support to community project

BROOKLYN, NY / ACCESSWIRE / August 20, 2015 / Gangstas Making Astronomical Community Changes Inc. (G-MACC Inc.) is now better positioned to bring their services to the East Flatbush community thanks to the generosity of local philanthropist Mr. Yeshaya Wasserman of SGW Properties (<http://www.sgwpropertiesny.com/>). Mr. Wasserman's donations of furniture and financial assistance for the G-MACC office has helped to support the organization's activities and better serve the community. Mr. Wasserman has also helped to jump start G-MACC Inc.'s popular Physical Mentors program by donating brand new state-of-the-art gym equipment.

"Mr. Yeshaya Wasserman (<https://www.crunchbase.com/person/yeshaya-wasserman>) is an example of the difference one person can make by being actively involved in providing change in the community. His level of support and passion to help all those around is greatly appreciated," says Shanduke McPhatter, G-MACC Inc.'s Founder and Executive Director

G-MACC Inc. expressed their gratitude to Mr. Yeshaya Wasserman, for his dedication and commitment to improving the quality of life in their neighborhoods. His understanding of the issues affecting the East Flatbush Community and his ongoing support underlines the fact that organizations like Gangstas Making Astronomical Community Changes Inc. are desperately needed to enforce public safety to proactively deliver effective solutions.

